

Producer Workshop

Using Native Warm-Season Grasses in a Grazing System

July 16, 2019 ~ 6:00 PM—9:00 PM

Millstone Creek Farm - Hillsboro

9061 Graybill Road - Hillsboro, Ohio 45133

Participants will learn the latest research supported methods for reliable native forage establishment and grazing management to maintain grass vigor and animal performance through the summer.

This training is being hosted by: The Highland SWCD, Highland County Cattlemen, Ohio Dept. of Agriculture, USDA-NRCS, ODNR - Division of Wildlife, OSU - Extension, and Union Stockyards.

Featured Speakers:

Pat Keyser, University of Tennessee - Director of Native Grasslands Management -- Bob Hendershot, ODA - Retired NRCS Grasslands Coordinator

No Fee but pre-registration is required.

RSVP at www.highlandswcd.com/events.html

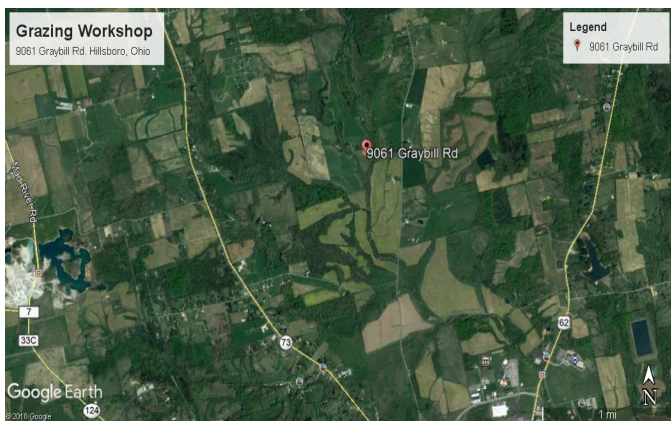

By: Friday July 12

Dinner will be provided to pre-registrants

Questions: Call Highland SWCD (937) 393-1922(3)

TOPICS TO BE COVERED:

- Workshop includes a pasture walk to view native warm-season grass pastures at Millstone Creek Farm.
- Why use native warm-season grasses in your grazing system?
- Native warm-season grass establishment - Managing to maintain vigor and productivity.
- Animal performance and economics
- Warm-Season annuals and cover crop options.

SPONSORS:

 A bridge is out on Graybill Road, it is recommended entering from SR 73 and Roundhead Rd.*

